

equinor

Shaping the future of energy

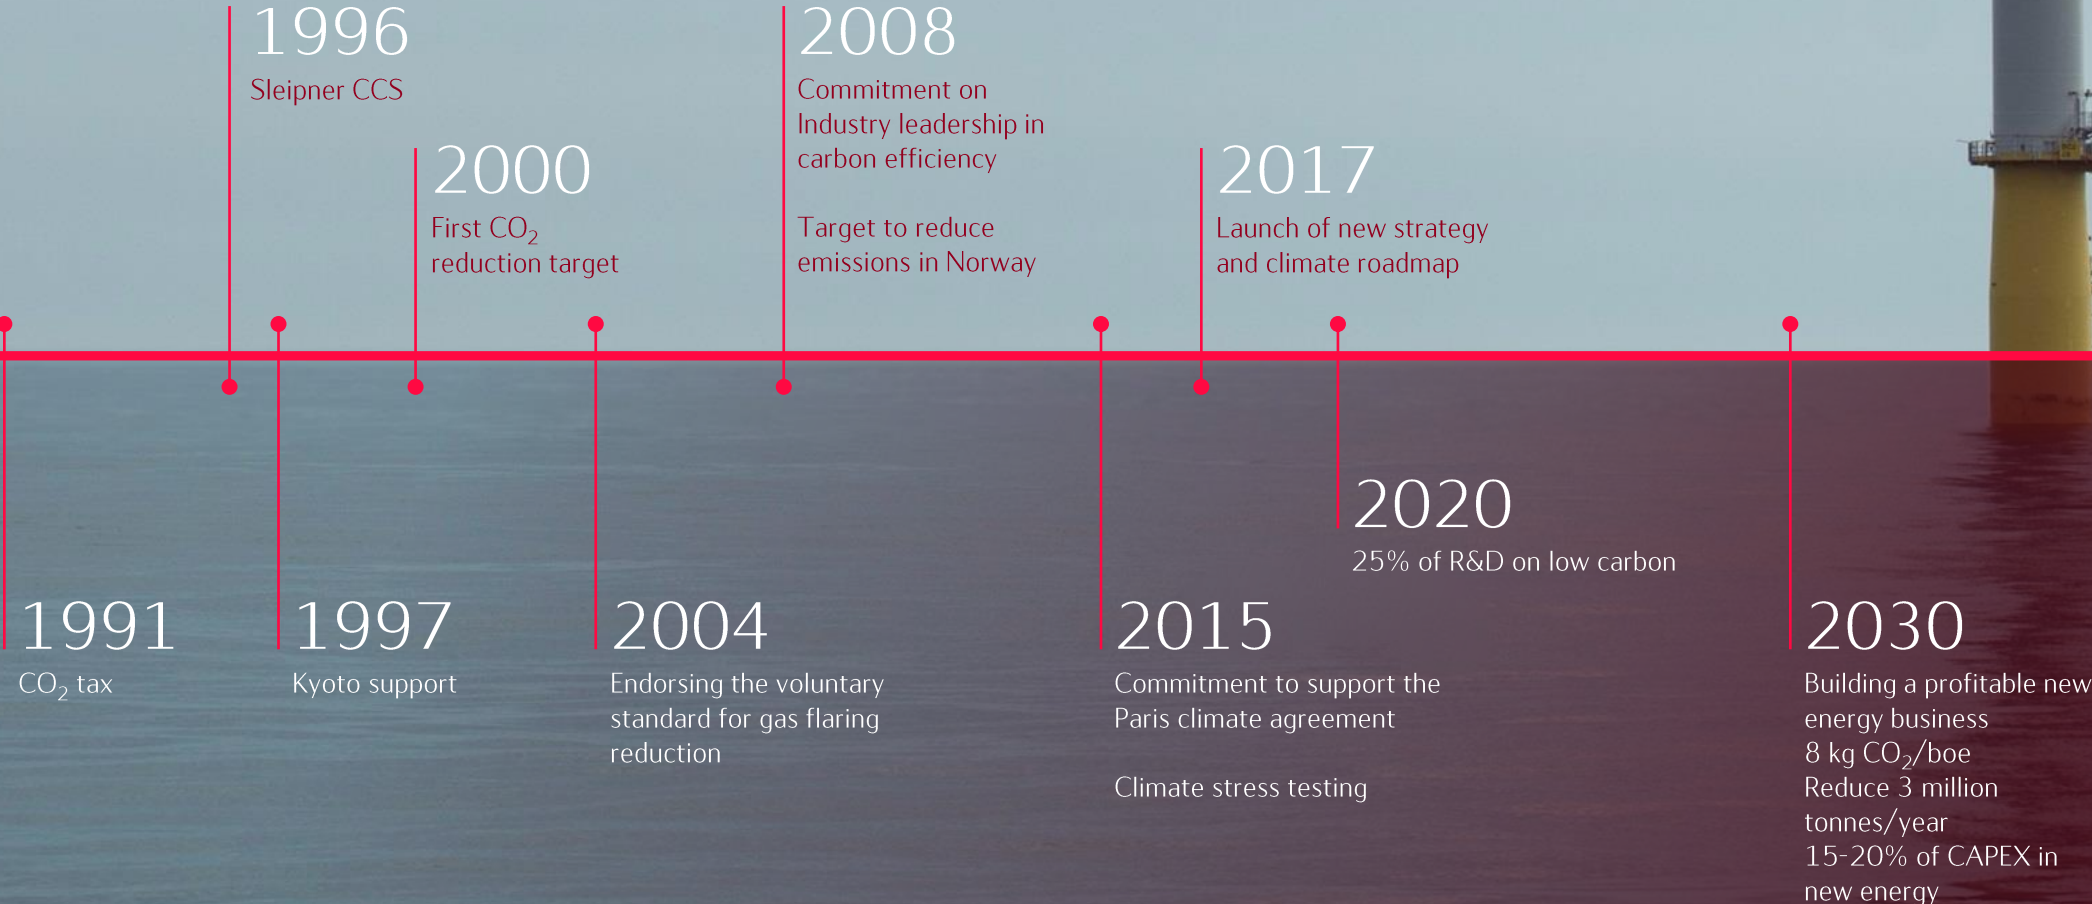

New name, same company, same people

Proposed name change from Statoil to Equinor supports our development as broad energy company

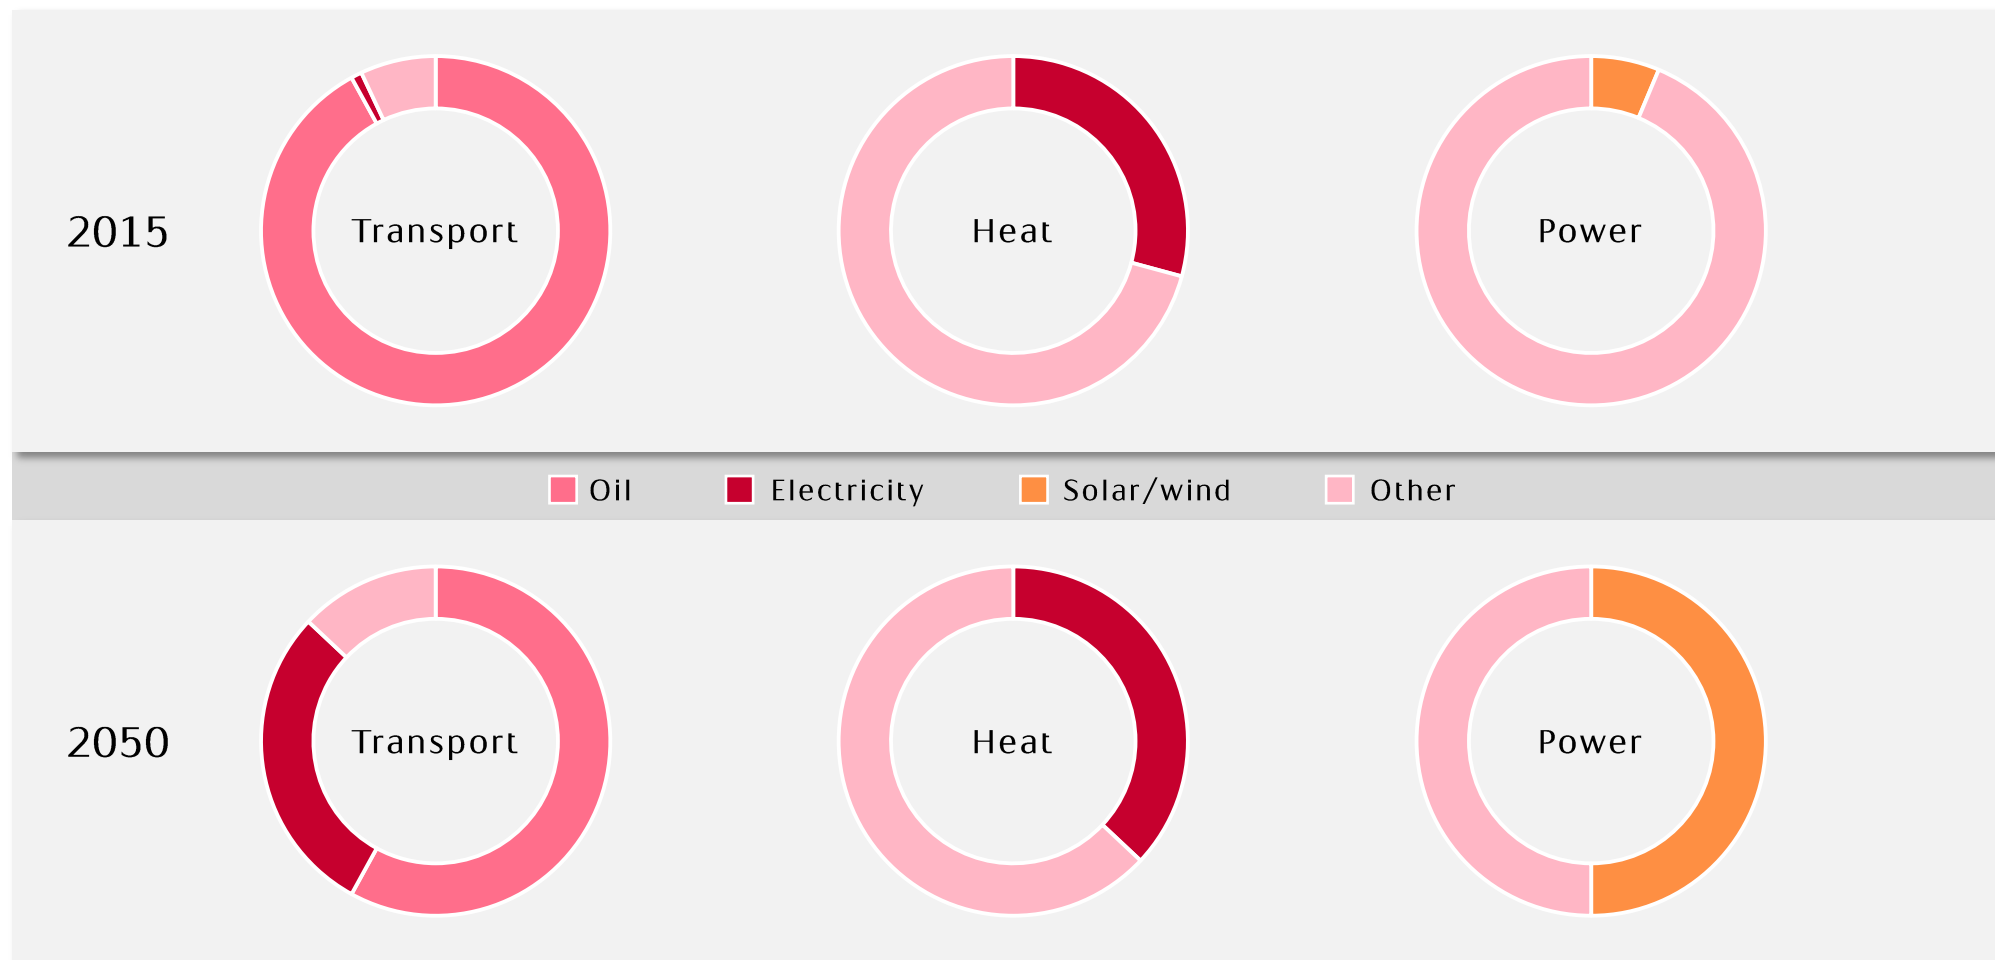

- The world, and its energy systems are changing
- Equinor reflects and supports the always safe, high value and low carbon strategy
- Proposal to Annual General Meeting on 15 May

Developing from focused oil and gas company to broad energy company

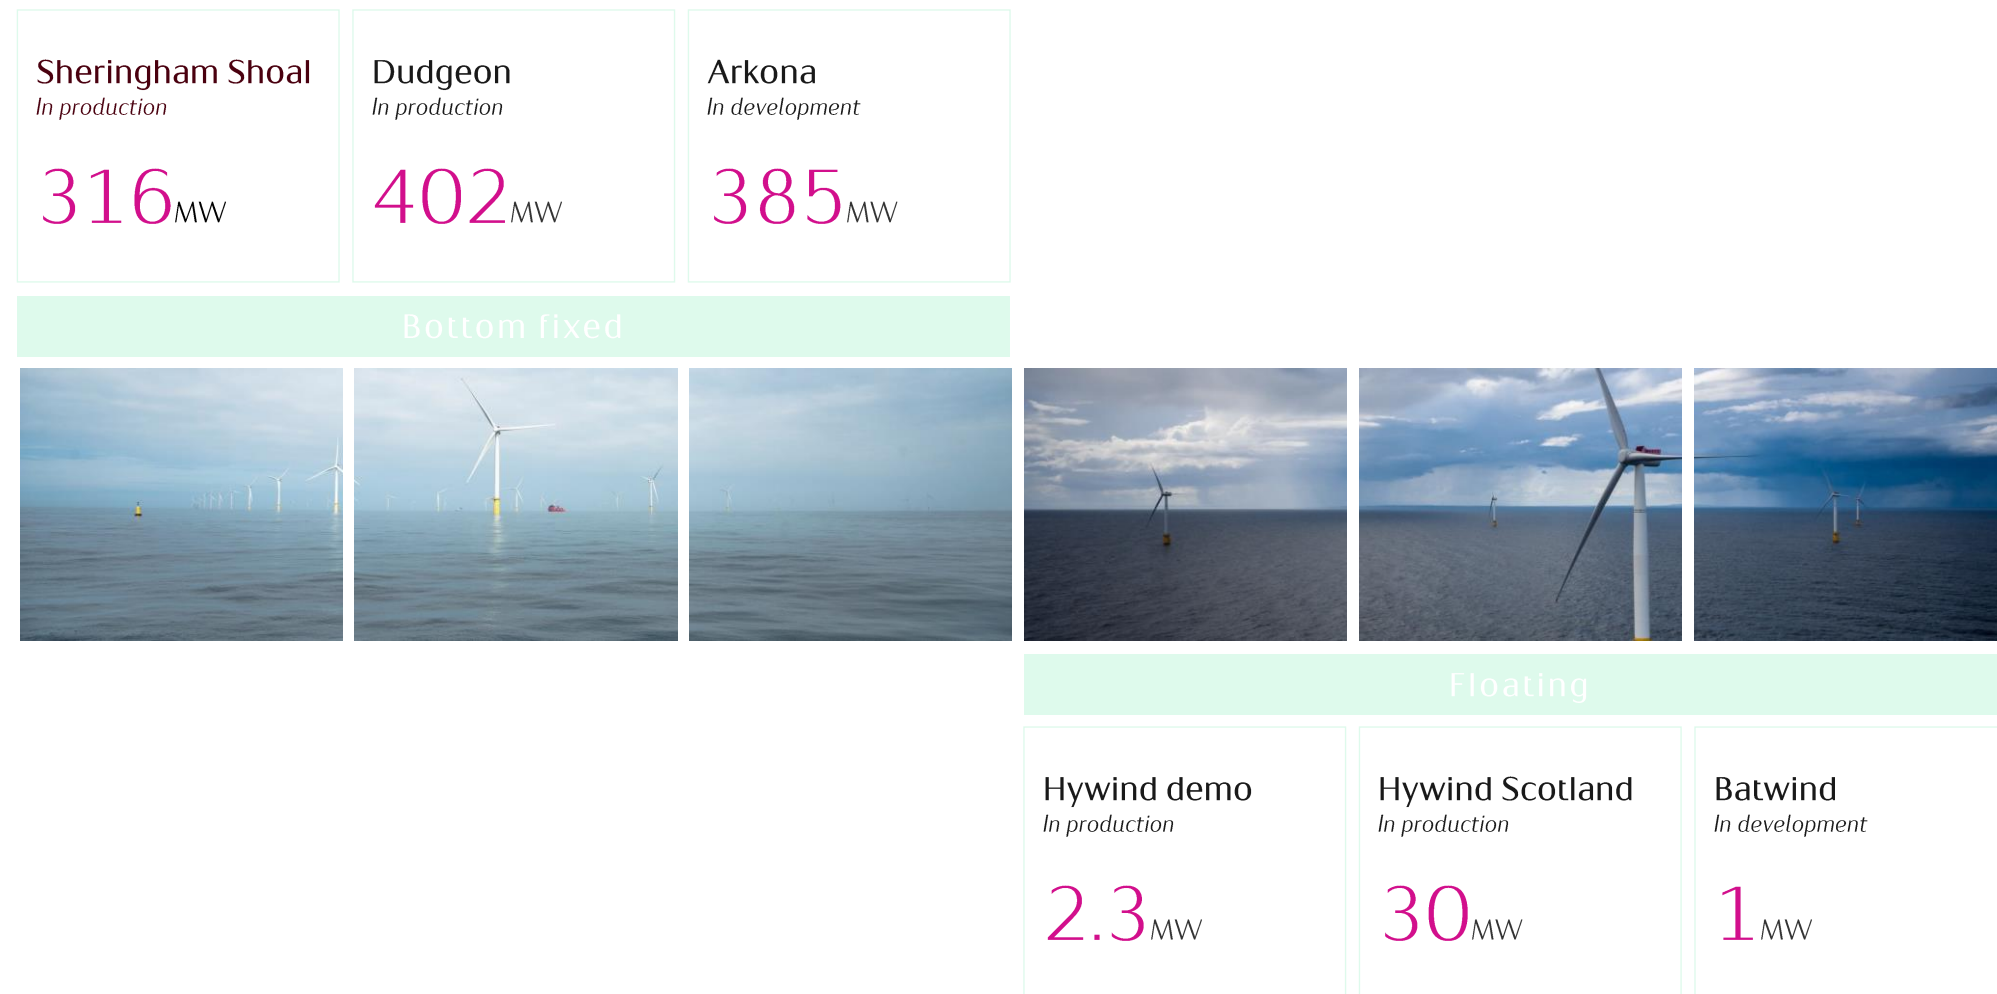

Energy transition – where does it take place?

Source: Statoil Energy Perspectives, Renewable Scenarios

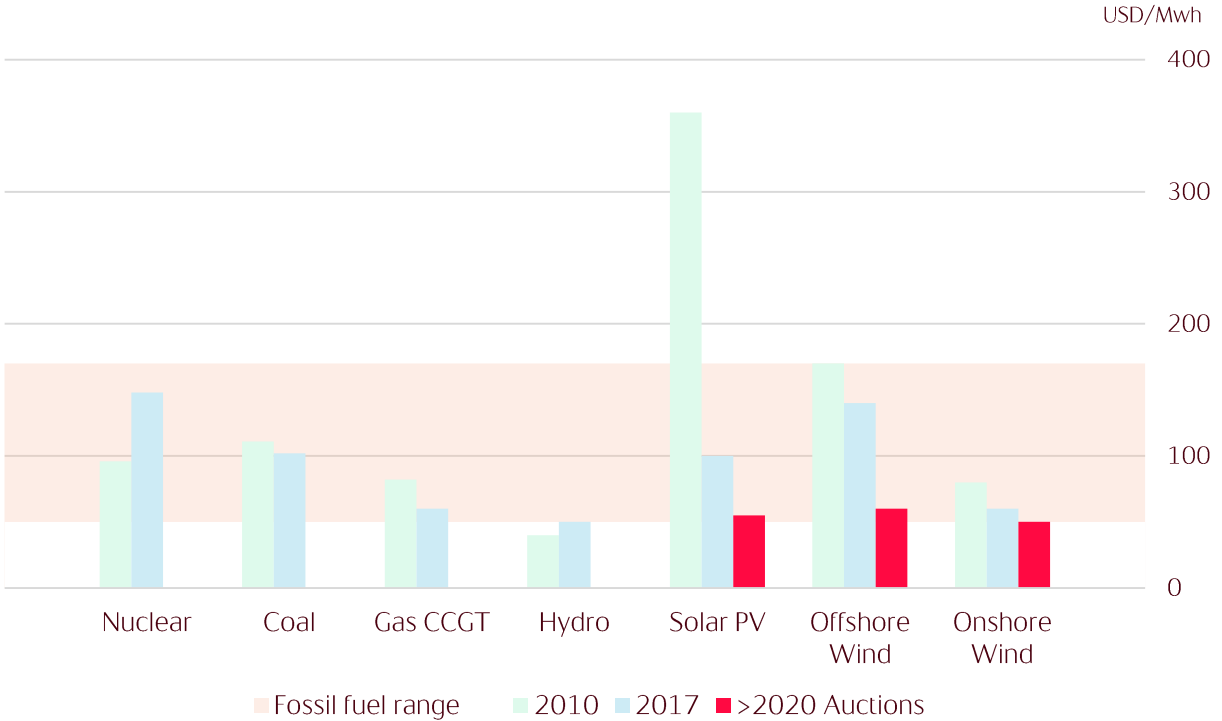

Building a profitable offshore wind portfolio¹

1. Figures: Installed capacity, 100% basis.

Cost reductions leading to exponential growth

Global levelised cost of electricity from utility-scale generation technologies

Source: IRENA, Lazard

Shaping the future of energy

Elena Zemskova

Manager government affairs Statoil Russia AS – a company in the Equinor group, soon changing its name to Equinor

© Equinor ASA

This presentation, including the contents and arrangement of the contents of each individual page or the collection of the pages, is owned by Equinor. Copyright to all material including, but not limited to, written material, photographs, drawings, images, tables and data remains the property of Equinor. All rights reserved. Any other use, reproduction, translation, adaption, arrangement, alteration, distribution or storage of this presentation, in whole or in part, without the prior written permission of Equinor is prohibited. The information contained in this presentation may not be accurate, up to date or applicable to the circumstances of any particular case, despite our efforts. Equinor cannot accept any liability for any inaccuracies or omissions.